

HICKS THINKS HE WAS DRUGGED AND ROBBED

Bertrand Youth Who Fell From the Grand Trunk Bridge Into St. Joe Can't Remember.

Dudley Hicks of Bertrand, the youth who fell off the Grand Trunk bridge on Christmas evening, and came through with only a few scratches on his face to show for it, says he was drugged and robbed of $55 on that day.

Hicks had come over on the 2 o'clock car to spend the day. He met two strangers on the street and had two glasses of beer and one small glass of whiskey with them, and after that doesn't remember anything else until he found himself in the river.

"It was in some saloon on S. Michigan st.," he said. "I don't know the name of it."

Hicks was revived at the police station and turned loose in the morning. No charges were placed against him.

BRILLIANT SUFFRAGET IS PRODUCT OF 'MELTING POT'

MISS SONYA LEVIN.

Miss Sonya Levin, the product of what Zangwell calls the "melting pot" of New York, came to this country from Russia at the age of five. She has managed by the hardest kind of work to climb the ladder. She is a lawyer connected with a well-known legal firm who on several occasions have entrusted her with important missions to Europe, because, as they say, she "always comes back with the goods." Miss Levin, as a delegate to the woman's suffrage convention at Washington, hotly denounced the anti-suffrage statement that it was "working women do not want to vote."

VILLA HOPING TO MOVE ON CAPITAL

nation of foreigners in Mexico, who have incurred the ill will of the rebels is again giving some concern to state department officials. Friday the Japanese ambassador called upon acting Secy. Moore to request that the United States government do what it can to protect Japanese in Juarez and in other border points.

There is some apprehension that these Japanese may be made to feel the weight of resentment by the constitutionalists because the federalists are receiving supplies of arms and ammunition from Japan, although it has already been pointed out that these goods are being delivered under contracts made by Japanese merchants last April.

Acting Secy. Moore promised to instruct the American consuls in the rebel country to extend the same care to Japanese as they would to American citizens.

WANT CARRANZA.

CHIHUAHUA, Dec. 27.—Why Gen. Carranza, recognized head of the revolution, has not moved his headquarters from Hermosillo, the center of military activity at Chihuahua, became an unanswered question about Gen. Villa's headquarters Friday. Gen. Villa, who had expressed himself as being in accord with Gen. Carranza and who had formally invited him to Chihuahua had received no notification of his chief's intention to come.

Gen. Villa has been compelled to assume much more than military authority, his advisers say, because Gen. Carranza has not assumed here the civil responsibility of the rebel government. Hermosillo, the capital of Sonora state, is more than 300 miles from this city. It is without railroad communication and has only direct telegraphic communication. The rebel government thus has its chief executive separated by a range of mountains from the bulk of his army.

SCHMIDT SHAMMING SAY FOUR ALIENIST

Dr. MacDonald Claims Alleged Slayer is a Man of Superior Intelligence.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—That Hans Schmidt, now on trial for the murder of Anna Aumuller, was shamming insanity was the burden of the testimony given Friday by four alienists appearing for the state.

Dr. Carter F. McDonald, the first expert to be called by the prosecution, testified that on Sept. 24 the accused ex-priest had told him:

"I care not. I am willing for the law to take its course and you can have my body." Dr. MacDonald gave it as his opinion that Schmidt "is a man of superior intelligence and that he has shammed insanity much more cleverly than an ignorant person could have done."

He also thought it possible that the four alienists of the defense had been successfully deceived by the accused, and that Dr. Herrman, who examined Schmidt for the royal court of Munich, Germany, also had been imposed upon by the simulations of Schmidt.

A PUZZLE.

We borrow from the New York Press the following instructive history of a head of cabbage:

The head is grown by a small farmer in Connecticut, who gets a cent and a half for it. It first goes to the commission merchant, who lives on Riverside Drive, pays $2,000 a year for his apartment, keeps an automobile and spends $7,000 a year. Next the cabbage is sent to the wholesaler, who lives on West End av., in an $1,800 apartment, keeps an automobile and spends $4,000 a year. Thence the cabbage goes to the jobber, who lives in a $1,500 apartment on upper Broadway, keeps an automobile and spends $6,000 a year. From him the cabbage travels to the retailer, who lives in a $700 apartment on a side street, has a corner store for which he pays $25 a month rent, keeps two delivery wagons at a cost of $140 a month, and spends $2,500 a year on his living. Finally the cabbages gets to Mr. Ultimate Consumer, who lives in a $40-a-month tenement, rides in a $100 car or subway, spends all he can make or a little more to live, and pays for that head of cabbage 13 cents.

DR. THOMSON'S EYE TALK

(TALK NO. 218.)

Given Up.

I suppose there are two hundred people in South Bend who have given up evening reading entirely. It tires their eyes or gives them headache to such an extent that they find no pleasure in it. This is one of the most common symptoms of defective eyes. Nearly eight out of ten of my customers come to me with this complaint. There is no trouble more easily remedied. Correctly fitted glasses not only correct the defect but relieve all strain. They make it possible to read all evening without headache or tired eyes. They strengthen and preserve the sight and keep your eyes in a normal and healthy condition. Come in and let me show you what you need.

MOYER SAYS HE WAS SHOT THE NDRIVEN OUT OF TOWN

by three men who seemed to be guarding them, although there was no visible demonstration of force or coercion.

Citizens' alliance circles professed ignorance of the incident and refused to discuss it. Most of the leaders of the organization were in Calumet, 14 miles from Hancock, attending a meeting of the committee formed to relieve distress in families visited by the calamity of Christmas eve. The committee was considering means of persuading union families to accept aid when word of Moyer's departure reached Calumet.

Kidnaping Charged.
At the local federation headquarters, Moyer's departure was called a "kidnaping by the Citizens' alliance." The action was said to have caused no great surprise, as it was said that threats of such possibility had been received two weeks ago. It was pointed out that these threats had been reported by Vice Pres. Mahoney when he made a plea for a federal investigation of conditions before the rules committee a national house of representatives.

BOB FITZSIMMONS TOO OLD TO FIGHT, SAYS BOXING COMMISSION

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Bob Fitzsimmons' ambition to shine again in the pugilistic limelight and to prove that the present crop of "white hopes" is not in it with the class of fighters when "Lanky Bob" was in his prime received a decided setback at the hands of the state boxing commission. The commission has issued an edict prohibiting the former world's champion from engaging in any bout in this state because of his age. Fitzsimmons, however, still persists in his determination to return to the ring, and his manager will try to induce promoters in other states to find a suitable opponent for Bob.
